Lehman College/College Now
Summer Arts Academy 2006

Introduction

The Lehman College Summer Arts Academy 2006 will provide high school juniors and seniors with a unique opportunity to experience college-level studies in the arts and mass communication. Students will take college-credit courses in art, theatre, filmmaking or journalism. The courses will provide an interactive hands-on learning experience as well as an exposure to the humanities. Students will receive 4 college credits for successful completion of their academic work and will be involved in a multimedia production as part of the Summer Arts Festival on August 8 and 9. The cost of the program is FREE for the student.

Program Description and Schedule

The College Now Summer Arts Academy will meet on the Lehman College campus from Monday July 10 through Wednesday August 9. The classes meet Monday – Thursday from 10:00 am – 3:00 pm.

In the morning session (10:00 am – 12:00 pm) students choose one of the following classes for 3 college credits:

ART 112: Introduction to Digital Imaging introduces students to the creation of art and imagery using computer and digital media.

COM 215: Fundamentals of Camera for TV and Film studies theory and practice of camera techniques, video editing and filmmaking.

COM 218: Fundamentals of Mass Media allows students to study a variety of journalism styles.
THE 241: The Art of Theatre allows students to study a central work of dramatic literature.
THE 234: Visual Elements of Theatre will introduce students to the visual arts of the theatre with an emphasis on stagecraft and makeup design.

LUNCH (12:00 – 12:50 pm) – provided by the College Now Program

In the afternoon session (1:00 – 3:00 pm) all the students will be enrolled in 1 credit workshops:

THE 200: Art/Journalism/Theatre/Video Workshops allow students the opportunity to work on practical applications of the respective disciplines that they are studying in the morning session. Although students will be working with their respective instructors in the different disciplines during morning and afternoon sessions, the afternoon sessions will devote a great deal of time to the collaboration between the different art forms in order to produce a multi-media work during the Summer Arts Festival in August. The afternoon workshops will provide the students with a hands-on learning experience of the multi-media arts.

Summer Arts Festival

The Summer Arts Academy culminates in the Lehman College/College Now Summer Arts Festival 2006 on August 9 and 10 at the Lovinger Theatre on the Lehman College campus. Students will present a multimedia production that will incorporate all the collaborative efforts of the students, faculty and staff who participated in the Summer Arts Academy.
